1. Iasi has the following educational institutions:

- a. Iasi University, with 3,000 students, the Mathematics and Physics Department has about 150 students, including 90 women.
- b. Institutul Medico Farmaceutic (Medical and Pharmacological Institute).
- c. Institutul Politehnic, with five departments and 5,000 students.
- d. Institutul de Planificare si Stiinte Economice (Institute for Planning and Economics).

2. The following political organizations are active at the University and the academies:

- a. Workers Youth League (Uniunea Tineretului Muncitoresc - UTM). Between 65 and 75 per cent of the University students are members of the League and under instruction to carry out political activities within the University.
- b. Sindicatul Universitatii, to which all the University students belong almost without exception, though only a few carry out regular political activities on behalf of the Sindicatul.

3. The students receive board and lodging from the state, which is withdrawn if a student fails to attend lectures over a period of time. Students who distinguish themselves may be granted special allowances and premiums.

4. In June 1951 at Bacau, a student, who had been born at Bacau, was called up for military service before the Municipal Military Commission (Comisariatul Militar Orasanesc), consisting of two army doctors and three civilian physicians, although he was living in Iasi at the time. On production of a certificate from the University Department (Adeverinta) that he was a student in his first year, he was
